

Contents

Introduction.....	7
1. General information about Poland	11
1.1. Territorial divisions of the country	15
1.2. Political system	16
2. Mineral industry	22
2.1. Geology	22
2.2. Production and employment	31
2.3. Imports and exports.....	34
2.4. The structure and organisation of the mineral industry.....	39
2.5. Research and technological development.....	41
3. Mineral policy.....	44
3.1. Legislation relevant to mineral activity.....	46
3.2. The ownership of minerals	50
3.3. Processes and procedures for obtaining mineral rights.....	52
3.4. Prospecting and the exploration of mineral deposits	58
3.5. Extraction	62
3.5.1. Licence for mineral extraction	68
3.5.2. Designing and building of a mining plant	71
3.5.3. Mining plant operations	73
3.5.4. Closure of a mining plant	75
3.5.5. Reclamation and redevelopment of mining sites.....	75
3.6. Fees and fines	81
4. Land use planning	86
4.1. Sustainable development in land use planning	86
4.2. The geological data bases and archives	86
4.3. The system of land use in Poland	87
4.4. Geological – mining activities in the light of the Act on Land Use Planning and Space Management	94

4.5. Conception of the country's land use plan	95
4.6. Voivodship land use plan	96
4.7. Local land use plan	96
5. Evaluation of the sustainable mineral supply	103
5.1. The best practises to ensure a sustainable mineral supply	103
5.2. A question of improvement	112
6. Conclusion.....	114
Sources	115
Appendix	117